George Yu has struck again. He has contacted Los Angeles police officer Ortega to pursue harassing me again. Today I saw the police car drive to the school and depart. Later she stopped her vehicle and got out. She told me that she is pursuing stay away orders for people who are in the park all day and near where children play.

Prior to mentioning her purpose, I informed her of the people who had mad threats to kill me were here. She said that she was not here for that.

She has a extensive conversation with Alpine Recreation staff and Director and walked to where they are. Afterward, she drove her car to George Yu office to report back on her progress. Then drove off.
